

We feel that what the bankers want is not in the best interest of the majority of the public in Wisconsin. To me it is just a loophole in the no call list, which in turn will be allowing people we don't want calling again. It would be the beginning of the end of a no call list. Please leave our no call list alone. We have had some beautiful uninterrupted evenings.